

Everyone invited!
Reading, farming, fun event at Empire Library Sat. June 25

Fun activities – with lots of learning about animals, plants, farming – and, of course, reading – will be happening Saturday, June 25 from 11 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the library.

It is Empire's part of the Stanislaus Reads project sponsored by the county library system.

Activities will include many that help children understand how important farming is to our area. Tentative plans call for a visit by Splasher, MID's "spokes-frog" as well as several hands-on activities involving water, plants, animals, and even bugs!

Reading corners will also share the stories "Apples to Oregon" and many other books on farming will be highlighted throughout the library.

The event is free.
Come find out why it is so important that Stanislaus Reads!

Stanislaus Reads

Read, Eat, Celebrate!

Our entire community is invited to join Stanislaus Reads, a county-wide library program with a three-fold purpose:

Stanislaus Reads aims to increase access to knowledge via our library, with special emphasis on children's reading programs. It also aims to draw increased awareness to combatting illiteracy in our county. Finally, it seeks to reinforce our ties to our area's primary industry – agriculture.

Join the county-wide effort to have everyone read the same book.

Wisdom of the Last Farmer, by David Mas Masumoto, is based on his family's struggle to develop and maintain their farm near Fresno. This book is aimed at adults. Learn more at: < www.masumoto.com >.

For younger readers there are two books: Esperanza Rising and Apples to Oregon.

All these may be checked out from the library. Reserve your copy today!

There's fun galore at the library this summer.

Lots of new books as well as CDs and DVDs – and keep your eyes peeled for other special summer activities.

Two events that should be fun for all include a puppet show and a outstanding magician presenting his special brand of entertainment.

Cool Crazy Critters with ventriloquist Tony Borders will be presented Saturday July 30th at 3:30 p.m.

Magic Finale – a summer show wrap up, features the magic of Shawn Durham, Thursday, August 11th at 1:30 p.m.

Both shows are free – sponsored by the Stanislaus Library Foundation.

Book Sale Success!

Empire readers turned out to help raise more than $300 for the library during the recent used book sale.

Funds raised by the FOEL have supplemented many local library programs.

Summer Reading Book Note

Among the Hidden

By Margaret Haddix

Luke has never been to school, had a birthday party, or gone to a friend's. In fact, Luke has never had a friend.

Luke is one of the shadow children, a third child forbidden by the Population Police. He's lived his entire life in hiding, and now, with a new housing development replacing the woods next to his family's farm, he is no longer even allowed to go outside.

Then, one day Luke sees a girl's face in the window of a house where he knows two other children already live. Finally, he's met a shadow child like himself. Jen is willing to risk everything to come out of the shadows— does Luke dare to become involved in her dangerous plan? Can he afford not to?

Most of the Shadow Children series are available at the Empire Library. Check one out today!
