July Events at the Empire Library

All ages can take part in free events at the Empire Library this July, beginning with a patriotic playdough program on Thursday, July 6 at 3:30 p.m. Using simple household ingredients and food coloring, children will create their choice of red, white or blue playdough to take home. All materials will be provided, but children under the age of 4 will require direct parental supervision.

Families can enjoy a free performance by Magician Brian Scott on Wednesday, July 12 at 3 p.m. This interactive program combines magic, comedy and fun with a love of reading.

All ages can create sidewalk art on Thursday, July 13 at 3:30 p.m. Sidewalk paint and chalk will be provided for participants to use to add their creative touches to the sidewalk outside of the library. This craft may get messy, so participants are encouraged to dress accordingly.

The library will host a LEGO day on Thursday, July 20 at 3:30 p.m. Finished LEGO creations will be displayed in the library. Children under the age of 4 must have direct parental supervision.

Children can take part in balloon rocket races on Thursday, July 27 at 3:30 p.m. Children will create simple balloon rockets and race them for small prizes, while supplies last.

The Empire Library is located at 18 South Abbie in Empire. For more information about Empire Library programs, please contact the Empire Library Branch Supervisor, Grace Habiger, at (209) 524-5505.
