FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

August Events at the Hughson Library

All ages can join the Hughson Library this August for free activities and crafts to mark the end of summer.

Children are invited to celebrate National Watermelon Day on Thursday, Aug. 3 at 3 p.m. Crafters will make paper plate watermelon book bags and paper watermelon fans. Participants will have a chance to enjoy a refreshing watermelon. This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Hughson Library.

Community members who visit the library on Friday, Aug. 4 can enjoy jazz while browsing the collection. Throughout the day, the library will play classic jazz music as a tribute to famed musician Louis Armstrong.

In celebration of Elvis Presley Week, the Hughson Library will host an Elvis Day on Friday, Aug. 11. All ages can stop by the library throughout the day to listen to Elvis' music and make Elvis themed buttons.

Children and teens can add pizzazz to their school day with a craft featuring pencils and pens on Thursday, Aug. 17 at 3 p.m. Crafters will learn how to make personalized painted pencils and bright neon pens.

The Hughson Library is located at 2412 A Third St. For more information, please contact the Hughson Library branch supervisor, Heather Bailey, at (209) 883-2293.
