Back-to-school crafts at the Riverbank Library

Students can get excited about the back-to-school season by crafting unique school accessories

This September, the Riverbank Library will offer craft programs designed to help make the back-to-school season fun. These craft programs make for engaging afterschool activities for children and teens.

On Tuesday, Sept. 4 at 3:30 p.m. children and teens can make a beaded lizard craft. The craft is easy to make, and is designed for ages 7 and up. Crafters are welcome to make the beaded backpack buddies for themselves and their friends. "We've had several kids tell us they are so excited to make beaded lizards," said Victoria Holt, Riverbank Library supervisor.

Later in the month, students can visit the library to make duct tape pencil pouches on Tuesday, Sept. 18 at 3:30 p.m. A variety of colorful duct tapes for participants to choose from to make their pencil pouches. "The pencil pouches are easy to make, and a fun way to personalize school supplies," said Holt.

These programs are sponsored by the Friends of the Riverbank Library. The Riverbank Library is located at 3442 Santa Fe St. For more information, please contact the Riverbank Library at 209-869-7008.
