March Events at the Nick K. Blom Salida Regional Library

Stop by the Nick W. Blom Salida Regional Library during the month of March for crafts, family fun and more. Make sure to watch for all that the library has to offer during March!

On March 6 from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. and March 8 from 10 a.m.-3 p.m., the Friends of the Salida Library will hold their annual book sale. Stop by the Salida Library's Community Room to take advantage of bargain prices on a great selection of books.

Looking for fun and creative ways to save money? The Modesto Money Mavens will present couponing tips at the Salida Library on March 8 at 4 p.m. Books and other related materials will be on display and available for checkout.

The Salida Book Club discussion this month will be held on March 11 at 10 a.m. This month's book is Private Peaceful by Michael Morpurgo. Visit the Salida Library checkout desk to take advantage of the copies available for checkout, though supplies are limited. Call Isabel at (209) 543-7315 for more information.

Math Takes Off! at the Salida Library on March 11 at 4 p.m. Children and their families can explore mathematical concepts through games and materials under the guidance of instructors and high school students.

The library will show the movie The Adventures of Milo and Otis on Tuesday, March 18 at 6 p.m. Children and their families are encouraged to bring a picnic dinner and a blanket. Children may come in their pajamas. The library will provide a beverage and popcorn.

MORE

Stop by the Salida Library on March 25 at 4 p.m. for the "Book-a-Craft" with The Very Hungry Caterpillar. After listening to the classic children's story, children of all ages will be able to create an original handprint craft based on the book.

The Salida Library is located at 4835 Sisk Road in Salida. For more information, please call (209) 543-7353.
