Old Business –

Sharon announced that Dana Ardis got a job at the Modesto Library cataloging.

The Summer Reading Program is going well.

Frank Clark reported on the plans so far for the 50th Anniversary party for the Oakdale Library. The venue is the home of the Hagerty's who will provide tables, chairs, china... The date is 10/05/13 from 4:00 P.M. – 6:00 P. M. Frank suggested food stations for beverages, hearty hors d'oeuvres, charging at a suggested price of $12.50 per ticket. The event would be advertised, and tickets must be sold.

Committees are needed to set up, take down, decorate, etc. Janis will check to see if Rainbow Fields makes banners to advertise events. Colleen will check into entertainment. The planning committee will explore the venue on July 15, 8:30 A.M...

Frank suggested that FOL pursue a monetary award from Rotary by making a plan to state what we can do to improve the library to have an impact on literacy in our community.

Sharon asked that a committee be formed to explore changes to the book sale and the Author Author events in 2014. Bring ideas to the next meeting.

New Business:

Deborah Greenley, Great Valley Book Fest invited FOL to see books on Oct. 19, 2013 at the Bass Pro center in Manteca. The members present voted not to participate.

Meeting Adjourned 3:38 P.M.
