reference

librarians at the Stanislaus County Library are experts at helping people find information. Whether they're helping a student find information for school, helping a business person search for prospects, or recommending books for pleasure reading, they can help customers find the information they need. In fact, last year librarians answered 157,755 reference questions.

CHILDREN'S SERVICES

- Last summer, 450 teens participated in the Teen Summer Reading Club. They read 2,977 books.
- More than 6,400 children participated in the Summer Reading Club. As a group, they read more than 25,000 hours.
- Through a Children & Families Commission grant, the library established Traveling Tales. This innovative program provides training and storytelling kits for childcare providers serving children ages 0-5. Currently, 106 childcare providers participate, checking out an average of 130 kits per month. This represents a 28 percent increase in circulation over the previous year.

Stanislaus County Libraries make reading and learning fun. Weekly StoryTimes are offered at all 13 libraries – developing pre-reading skills in even the youngest children. Children also participate in craft projects, special storytelling events and musical performances. Last year, children attended StoryTime 39,914 times countywide. Families are reading at home, too. More than 1 million children's books were checked out last year.

HOME DELIVERY SERVICE

For more than 30 years, the library's Home Delivery Service has been a vital link for those who cannot come to the library. This nationally recognized, award-winning program operates with the help of 24 friendly volunteers who select and deliver books, large-print books, books on tape/cd, magazines, videos and DVDs to 231 home-bound residents in private homes and retirement facilities.

To volunteer or learn more about this service, call (209) 558-7817.

Dedicated volunteers visit their customers faithfully, often developing close friendships. For home-bound residents, the books are a blessing that help fill the hours of sometimes lonely days. Volunteer visits and library materials provide a lifeline to the world for homebound borrowers.

improving

literacy skills among Stanislaus County's adults is essential to building a stronger, healthier workforce. Through ReadingWorks, a partnership with the Stanislaus Literacy Center, volunteers conduct individual or small-group tutoring sessions at libraries, and other training centers. As a result, 1,212 adults improved their reading and writing skills last year. Tutors are always needed and they make a tremendous difference in the lives of their students.

LITERACY

- Last year, 77 percent of students improved their reading skills by one test level.
- 58 percent of employed students improved on their jobs.
- 81 percent read more often to their children.

For more information about becoming a tutor or getting help, call (209) 558-4505.

COMPUTER LITERACY

- Through Bridges to Technology, 161 small-group computer classes were offered countywide in 2005-2006, serving 536 students.

• Each quarter, the library hosts Web Wednesday technology classes offered in partnership with modbee.com. Attendees learned about topics such as digital photography, photo editing, digital video and online college and scholarship research.

For more information about computer classes, call (209) 558-7814.

Friends of the Library support their local branch library through advocacy and fundraising for special library needs. Anyone can join the Friends of the Library – annual membership dues, which are minimal, are set and collected by each Friends of the Library group. Most Friends groups hold a used book sale one or more times per year, sharing books with others, while raising funds to support their library. Friends of the Library groups have purchased shelving, children's books and craft supplies. They often provide funding to bring professional children's performers to the library, support teen programs and offer incentive prizes to encourage children and teens to read. During National Library Week, Friends of the Hughson Library members visit classrooms, reading to children and encouraging them to sign up for a library card. These are just a few examples of Friends activities. There are Friends of the Library groups in Ceres, Hughson, Modesto, Oakdale, Patterson, Salida, Turlock and Waterford. For more information about each Friends group, visit www.stanislauslibrary.org and click on "About the Library," then "Friends of the Library."

STANISLAUS COUNTY LIBRARY FOUNDATION

For more than a decade, the Stanislaus County Library Foundation has supported programs throughout the county library system. The Foundation has also secured grant funding from Omega Nu for the children's dinner theater series and from the Modesto Sunrise Rotary for children's programs.

The Foundation raises funds through private donations and special projects, such as:

- The Adult Spelling Bee, next scheduled for April 2007.
- An annual mail campaign, which raised $22,000 last year.
- A Web site (www.stanislauslibraryfoundation.org) with links to Amazon.com and BarnesandNoble.com that generate revenue for the foundation with each purchase.

The Foundation provides a monthly book review publication called "Book Page" (available at all libraries). In support of literacy, the Foundation is sponsoring a tutor recruitment campaign. Teen programs and a scholarship for staff pursuing careers as professional librarians are also being offered this year.

LIBRARY CARDS

Getting a library card is quick and easy!

- 1) Complete the application below or online by going to www.stanislauslibrary.org.
- 2) Visit your library to activate your account. You'll need to show your photo identification and proof of address. There is no age limit to obtain a library card, but children will need a parent or guardian's signature, accepting responsibility for borrowed materials.
