Ceres teens talk books and programs

New program at the Ceres Library gives teens an opportunity to choose programs they'd like to see at their library

Local teens are invited to take part in a program designed exclusively for them on Wednesday, Nov. 7 at 4 p.m. During this initial meeting, teens are invited to share ideas for programs they would like to see at the library, or tell the group about books they are reading. Food will be served, while supplies last.

The program on Nov. 7 will be used to plan teen programs at the library for the rest of the season. A teen program will then be held the first Wednesday of each month at 4 p.m., based on the input of the group.

“Ceres staff are eager to engage teens in this design session. We then look forward to implementing their ideas for library programs and activities,” said Olga Castañeda, Ceres Library supervisor.

This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Ceres Library. The Ceres Library is located at 2250 Magnolia St. For more information, please contact Olga Castañeda at 209-537-8938. Information about regularly occurring library programs can be found at www.stanislauslibrary.org, under the “Events and Classes” tab.
