November Events at the Denair Library

Community members are invited to take part in free programs at the Denair Library this November, beginning with the month-long Origami program for teens. Throughout the month, teens who visit the library will find origami paper and instructions on how to create origami flowers, boats or paper cranes.

Adults can Get Crafty on Thursday, Nov. 12 at 1 p.m. Participants will use shrink plastic and their creativity to make pendants.

Students in grades 4 through 8 are invited to the library's monthly STEAM* Challenge on Tuesday, Nov. 17 at 4 p.m. (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematics) This month's challenge will focus on engineering, and all participants will be grouped into teams. Each team will work together to build a combination roller coaster and ski jump. All materials will be provided.

Children can stop by the library to take part in a festive Thanksgiving craft on Tuesday, Nov. 24 from 12 to 6 p.m. The library will provide the paper bags and other craft materials necessary for children to make turkey puppets.

The Denair Library is located at 4801 Kersey Road in Denair. For more information, please contact the Denair Library at (209) 634-1283.
