January Family Events at the Modesto Library

If you are looking for family fun and awesome entertainment then a visit to the Modesto Library is a must! Families visiting the library in the month of January can enjoy exciting crafts and activities and even attend a spectacular Bubble Mania Science show!

The month begins with Bubble Mania, a show that allows children to discover the fun and science of bubbles! This free performance will take place on Saturday, Jan. 4 at 12 p.m. Free tickets are available one hour prior to the show at the Children's Department desk.

Families can attend a free scrapbooking program on Saturday, Jan. 11 at 12:30 p.m. Local scrapbooker, Anna Soto, will discuss the art of scrapbooking. Some supplies will be available but participants are encouraged to bring their own materials and photos.

Children can gather around Ryan's Reading Tree to hear the California Young Reader Medal Picture Book nominees and vote for their favorites! This event will take place in the Modesto Library Children's Department on Wednesday, Jan. 22 at 4:30 p.m.

Families have the opportunity to play giant versions of their favorite games on Giant Game Day! This event takes place on Wednesday, Jan. 15 at 4:30 p.m. and it features games such as Checkers, Tic-Tac-Toe, Connect Four and Giant Jenga.

The Library will round out a month of fun with a Paper Lantern Craft. Children can learn to create unique paper lanterns. This craft will be held in the Modesto Library Children's Department on Thursday, Jan. 30 at 4 p.m.

The Modesto Library is located at 1500 I Street in Modesto. For more information, please contact the Modesto Library at (209) 558-7814.
