March Events at the Newman Library

The Newman Library will host crafts for children and teens this month, as well as an estate planning seminar for adults.

On Tuesday, March 8 at 4 p.m. children are invited to make marshmallow chocolate pops. Participants will dip marshmallows into chocolate for a sweet treat.

Teens can create custom badge pins on Tuesday, March 22 at 3:30 p.m. Crafters will use clip art, pictures, and a button maker to make unique pins. Completed badge pins can be used to decorate clothing and backpacks.

The library will host a St. Paddy's Day windsock craft for children on Saturday, March 26 at 1:30 p.m. Participants will make windsocks using paper and tissue streamers.

Adults are invited to a free Estate Planning Seminar on Tuesday, March 29 at 6 p.m. Attorney Julie Richardson will review the basics of estate planning, including a discussion of all the documents needed, and other related issues to consider.

Newman Library is located at 1305 Kern St. in Newman. For more information, please call the Newman Library Branch Supervisor, Pamela Moore, at (209) 862-2010.
