Technology Training

This January, many branches of the Stanislaus County Library will host instructional programs on the library's electronic resources. The library currently offers free eBooks through the 3M Cloud Library, eMagazines through Zinio, downloadable audiobooks through Hoopla, and Mango Languages for all library customers. Interested parties are invited to bring their library cards and electronic devices to the library; staff will be available to offer hands-on help. Please see below for January's locations, dates, and times.
