Seasonal Crafts at the Ceres Library

Children can make crafts inspired by the autumnal season at the Ceres Library this October

Families looking for free seasonal activities in their community should visit the Ceres Library for unique crafts. These programs will be held on select Thursday afternoons at 3:30 p.m. during the month of October.

Crafts include creating a fall tree on Oct. 4, and a paper plate ghost craft on Oct. 11. Children can enjoy a “Ghoulish Tasty Treat” on Oct. 25 by making scary, edible eyeballs.

“We offer seasonal crafts and activities to reinforce what children are learning at home and school about the seasons in a way that is fun,” said Gloria Contreras-Houston, library assistant at the Ceres Library. “It’s also a way for kids to create decorations for their homes at no cost to their families.”

The crafts are free to participants, and all materials will be provided. Children ages 5 and under are welcome to participate, however they must have direct supervision from parents or adult guardians.

The Ceres Library is located at 2250 Magnolia St. For more information, please contact the library at 209-537-8938. Information about regularly occurring library programs can be found at www.stanislauslibrary.org, under the “Events and Classes” tab.
