February Events at the Empire Library

The Empire Library will offer free programs for children and their families this February.

Painting Day will be held on Thursday, Feb. 2 at 3:30 p.m. Children can paint works of art that may be used to decorate the library or taken home. All supplies will be provided.

On Thursday, Feb. 9 at 3:30 p.m. children can make heart-shaped bumblebees using construction paper and other craft supplies. Crafters are invited to create up to two valentines each. All ages are welcome.

Children can take part in a LEGO day on Thursday, Feb. 16 at 3:30 p.m. Finished LEGO creations will be displayed in the library. Children under the age of 4 must have direct parental supervision.

The library will celebrate President's Day with a round of Presidential Jeopardy on Thursday, Feb. 23 at 3:30 p.m. The questions will be multiple choice and designed for children ages 6 to 12, however all ages are welcome.

The Empire Library is located at 18 South Abbie in Empire. For more information about Empire Library programs, please contact the Empire Library Branch Supervisor, Grace Habiger, at (209) 524-5505.
