April Events at the Hughson Library

The Hughson Library will offer free programs for all ages this April, beginning with a baby bird craft on Tuesday, April 4 from 12 to 6 p.m. Children ages 3 to 12 can craft baby birds and their nests.

On Thursday, April 6 from 12 to 6 p.m., the library will host a party in celebration of the 50th anniversary of the book Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See? by Bill Martin, Jr. Children are invited to make story hats, bags and ribbons based on the book.

All ages are invited to the egg carton seed starter program on Wednesday, April 12 at 3 p.m. Participants will have the opportunity to start their own gardens. All materials will be provided, including soil, seeds, and egg cartons.

Families are invited to the free Act!vated Story Theatre program on Friday, April 14 at 11 a.m. The Goza family will perform two multicultural folk tales featuring physical comedy, music, song, dance, American Sign Language, and audience participation.

The Hughson Library is located at 2412 A Third St. For more information, please contact the Hughson Library branch supervisor, Heather Bailey, at (209) 883-2293.
