FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

July Events at the Hughson Library

All ages can visit the Hughson Library this July for a free interactive show, crafts and activities.

Children and their families can enjoy the "Didgeridoo Down Under" show on Friday, July 7 at 12:30 p.m. This Australia-themed show combines music, art, puppetry, comedy and science to promote tolerance and respect for all people and cultures. This program is best for ages four and up, however, all ages are welcome to enjoy this interactive and educational show.

The library will host a Teddy Bear and Friends party on Tuesday, July 11 at 4 p.m. Children are invited to bring their favorite teddy bears, dolls, or stuffed animal friends and enjoy an afternoon of sweets, drinks, games and friends. The Hughson Library has stuffed friends and dolls to share for those unable to bring their own.

Children and tweens can turn their favorite books into movies on Wednesday, July 12 at 3 p.m. The library will provide rolls of paper and colored pencils to make a film reel. Crafters will place their film reels in handmade viewing boxes and scroll through the rolls to watch their movies. This program is for ages 4 to 12.

Teens are invited to a craft program on Tuesday, July 18 at 2 p.m. Crafters can make fashionable bracelets out of plain soda cans.

A ninja-themed craft will be held on Wednesday, July 19 at 2 p.m. Children will create moveable ninjas out of paper bags.

On Tuesday, July 25 at 2 p.m. children can visit the library for a shark craft. Participants can make shark puppets out of paper plates.

The Hughson Library is located at 2412 A Third St. For more information, please contact the Hughson Library branch supervisor, Heather Bailey, at (209) 883-2293.
