March Events at the Keyes Library

The Keyes Library will host free programs for all ages this March, beginning with Story Time on Wednesdays at 11:45 a.m. Story Times feature new and classic picture books, flannel board and puppet stories, fingerplays, music and dancing, for preschoolers ages 3 to 5 and their caregivers, however all ages are welcome.

The library will offer a panda bookmark craft on Thursday, March 8 from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Children can create panda bookmarks to mark the corners of the pages in their books.

All ages can stop by the library to make leprechaun hats on Thursday, March 15 from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Crafters will learn how to make leprechaun hats out of recycled K-cups. Throughout the day, children who visit the library and find the hidden leprechaun will win a prize.

Teens and adults can take part in a stained glass craft on Friday, March 16 from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Participants will design faux stained glass keepsakes.

Families can enjoy a free performance by Act!vated Story Theatre on Wednesday, March 21 at 2 p.m. The Goza family will perform two multicultural folktales full of physical comedy, music, song, dance, American Sign Language, and audience participation.

The Keyes Library is located at 4420 Maud Ave. For more information about programs at the Keyes Library, please call the Keyes Library supervisor, Christine Ryu, at 209-664-8006.
