July Events at the Newman Library

The Newman Library will offer a number of free programs this July for children, teens and families, beginning with a Paper Popsicles craft on Tuesday, July 5 at 3:30 p.m. Following the craft, children can enjoy real popsicles.

A Summer Book Sale will take place from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Thursday, July 7 and Friday, July 8. This used book sale is sponsored by the Friends of the Newman Library.

Children and their families are invited to enjoy a free magic show as performed by Magic Dan on Saturday, July 9 at 2 p.m. This show promotes education while entertaining audiences with magic tricks.

LEGO Day will be held on Thursday, June 14 at 3:30 p.m. Children will have the opportunity to create LEGO displays for the library. Children under the age of 4 are welcome to participate, however they must have direct parental supervision.

Children can make emoji masks on Saturday, July 16 at 1:30 p.m. The library will provide all materials, including precut paper hearts, eyes, tongues and smiles.

The library will offer a Summer Fruit Kabob program on Tuesday, June 19 at 3:30 p.m. Each child will use fresh fruit to make their own fruit kabob.

Teens can take part in a Washi Tape Craft on Tuesday, July 26 at 3:30 p.m. Multiple design ideas and washi tape colors will be provided. This craft will be available until 8 p.m., so crafters may drop in during that time and work at their own pace.

Newman Library is located at 1305 Kern St. in Newman. For more information, please call the Newman Library Branch Supervisor, Thomas Kaps, at (209) 862-2010.
