March Events at the Newman Library

All ages can take part in free events at the Newman Library this March, beginning with a meeting of the Friends of the Newman Library on Tuesday, March 6 at 6 p.m. The public is invited to attend this meeting of library supporters.

Preschool Story Time will be held on Wednesdays at 10 a.m. Story Time features new and classic picture books, flannel board and puppet stories, fingerplays, music and dancing, for preschoolers ages 3 to 5 and their caregivers, however all ages are welcome.

LEGO® Days will be offered on Thursdays, March 8 and 22 at 3:30 p.m. Participants will have the opportunity to create LEGO® displays for the library. Children under the age of 4 must have direct parental supervision. LEGO® Days are sponsored by the Friends of the Newman Library.

Toddlers and preschoolers can enjoy “Wee Move and Play” on Fridays, March 9 and 23 at 10 a.m. This program features an hour of music, movement, and sensory play.

On Tuesday, March 13 the library will offer a special St. Patrick’s Day themed Bingo program from 4 to 5 p.m. Families are invited to play Bingo and win edible prizes.

Families can enjoy a free performance by Act!vated Story Theatre on Saturday, March 24 at 1 p.m. The Goza family will perform two multicultural folktales full of physical comedy, music, song, dance, American Sign Language, and audience participation.

Children can craft bunny bags out of paper lunch bags on Tuesday, March 27 from 4 to 5 p.m. Crafters will fill their completed bunny bags full of tasty treats. Following the craft, children will have an opportunity to take a picture with the Easter Bunny.

Newman Library is located at 1305 Kern St. For more information, please call the Newman Library supervisor, Sophia Petrakis, at 209-862-2010.
