November Events at the Riverbank Library

Community members can enjoy free crafts, fun activities and a book club program at the Riverbank Library this November.

“Python Ron” McGee will bring his favorite lizards and snakes to the library on Tuesday, Nov. 10 at 4 p.m. All ages are welcome to enjoy this educational, hands-on show-and-tell.

All Ages Coloring Craft will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 17 at 3:30 p.m. The library will provide coloring pages, crayons and markers. Finished artwork will be displayed in the library.

Children are invited to make Thankful Crafts on Wednesday, Nov. 18 at 3:30 p.m. Participants will make thankful wreaths and turkey cork crafts.

The Riverbank Library Book Club will meet on Tuesday, Nov. 24 at 4 p.m. to discuss French Lessons: Adventures with Knife, Fork, and Corkscrew by Peter Mayle. Library book clubs provide an opportunity for community members to expand their knowledge of books through meaningful discussion with others. A limited number of books are available for checkout at the library's circulation desk.

These programs are sponsored by the Friends of the Riverbank Library. The Riverbank Library is located at 3442 Santa Fe St. in Riverbank. For more information, please contact the Riverbank Library at (209) 869-7008.
