October Events at the Riverbank Library

This October the Riverbank Library will host a variety of fun, seasonal programs for people of all ages, beginning with a month-long Creepy Candy Count. Customers of all ages are invited to guess the number of candy pieces in the jar for a chance to win the entire jar of sweets! The Creepy Candy Count is sponsored by the Friends of the Riverbank Library.

Teens and tweens can design their own buttons on October 15 at 3:30 p.m. Participants are encouraged to bring small photos of family, friends, or a favorite pet. Crafters can also use colored pencils and paper to create original designs, or choose images from the library's collection of used magazines.

On October 18 at 3:30 p.m., Modesto Money Mavens Dawn Shaeffer and Rita Lopez will lead a fun and informative program on couponing. Participants will learn strategies on shopping smart and saving money.

The Riverbank Library's Book Club will meet on October 28 at 4 p.m for a discussion of The Women by T.C. Boyle. A limited number of books are available at the library's circulation desk. The Riverbank Library's Book Club provides an opportunity for local book lovers to meet and engage in a meaningful discussion of shared interests.

Join the Riverbank Library on October 29 for Halloween Fun at 3:30 p.m. Children, teens and families are invited to take part in the festivities, including cookie decorating, mask making, and a spider craft.

Participants are invited to come in costume and trick or treat at the library! Halloween Fun is sponsored by the
