September Events at the Riverbank Library

Community members are invited to enjoy free programs at the library this September, beginning with an origami craft on Tuesday, Sept. 5 at 3:30 p.m. Children and teens will learn how to fold several designs.

The Mayor's Book Club will be held on Monday, Sept. 11 at 11 a.m. Mayor Richard O'Brien will read a story to preschool age children and their families at the library following Story Time.

Families can visit the library for a game night on Tuesday, Sept. 12 at 3:30 p.m. Participants can enjoy giant versions of Jenga, Dominoes, Connect Four, Checkers and Tic-Tac-Toe.

Teens and tweens can learn how to make flavored lip balms on Tuesday, Sept. 19 at 3:30 p.m. Crafters can mix and match colors and flavors to make their own unique lip balms. This program is designed for ages 9 and up, and is sponsored by the Friends of the Riverbank Library.

Adults are invited to the "On the Road to Citizenship: Naturalization 101" program on Wednesday, Sept. 20 at 6 p.m. This free program will focus on the basics of naturalization. A representative from United States Citizenship and Immigration Services will give an overview of what it takes to become a citizen and how eligibility is determined in the naturalization process. The program will address the naturalization interview and how to avoid potential scams. On the Road to Citizenship is sponsored by United States Citizenship and Immigration Services.

The Riverbank Library Book Club will meet on Tuesday, Sept. 26 at 4 p.m. to discuss Me Before You by Jojo Moyes. Library book clubs provide an opportunity for community members to expand their knowledge of books through meaningful discussion with others.

The Riverbank Library is located at 3442 Santa Fe St. in Riverbank. For more information, please contact the Riverbank Library branch supervisor, Victoria Holt, at (209) 869-7008.
