Local libraries to celebrate Día de los Muertos with sugar skull events

Teens and adults at the Newman Library, as well as children at the Keyes Library, can celebrate the Day of the Dead by participating in sugar skull themed programs.

“We are a diverse community,” said Alberto Salcedo, Keyes Library supervisor. “The library is a great place for community members to explore and learn about different cultural celebrations.”

The first sugar skull program will be held at the Newman Library on Saturday, Oct. 12 at 2 p.m. Teens and adults will have the opportunity to intricately paint and take home their own sugar skulls. The Newman Library is located at 1305 Kern Street. For more information, please contact the library supervisor, Sophia Petrakis, at 209-862- 2010.

The Keyes Library will offer a drop-in sugar skull coloring program for kids on Thursday, Oct. 31 from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. The Keyes Library is located at 4420 Maud Avenue. For more information, please contact Alberto Salcedo at 209-664-8006.

Information about regularly occurring library programs can be found at www.stanislauslibrary.org, under the “Events and Classes” tab.
