January Events at the Turlock Library

Community members are invited to enjoy free programs at the Turlock Library this month, beginning with a rock art program for children on Tuesday, Jan. 9 at 4 p.m. All materials will be provided. All ages are welcome to participate, however, children 4 and under must have direct parental supervision.

The Turlock Library's Teen Advisory Board will meet on Wednesday, Jan. 10 at 4 p.m. The Teen Advisory Board offers teens the opportunity to earn community service credit while sharing their ideas on teen library programs and books. For more information, please call 209-664-8100.

Free Computer Basics classes will be offered on Thursdays at 3 p.m. Participants will be introduced to the parts of a computer, receive a tour of Windows, and learn simple tasks. Advance registration is required; please call 209-664-8100 to sign up.

The Mystery Lovers Book Club will meet on Friday, Jan. 12 at 10:30 a.m. to discuss Open and Shut by David Rosenfelt. A limited number of copies are available for checkout from the library. For more information, please contact the Turlock Library Reference Desk at 209-664-8100.

Children can enjoy a craft-a-palooza on Tuesday, Jan. 16 at 4 p.m. Crafters are invited to visit the library's Children's Room to choose from one of several crafts to make. All ages are welcome to participate, however, children 4 and under must have direct parental supervision. Craft-a-palooza is sponsored by the Friends of the Turlock Library.

A special Family Story Time will be held on Monday, Jan. 22 at 6:30 p.m. This program will feature special guest, Turlock Mayor Gary Soiseth. Participants can enjoy stories, music and
