Stanislaus County Library to host annual All-Kids Craft Fair

Young crafters from throughout the county will be given the opportunity to showcase their handcrafted items

The Stanislaus County Library will host its annual All-Kids Craft Fair on Saturday, Oct. 12 from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. at the Modesto Library. The fair features crafters ages 7 to 14 who will be on site to sell their handmade crafts.

Shoppers are invited to come support the young crafters as they learn about advertising, customer service, handling money, and other aspects of running a small business. All items are priced at $5.00 or less.

“We’re always excited with the response we get from our creative young crafters, with last year’s participants numbering around 170 kids,” said Christin Hutsell, children’s librarian at the Modesto Library. “These tiny business-people get so excited to show off what they can do and we at the library are thrilled to host them and showcase their work.”

The All-Kids Craft Fair is sponsored by the Friends of the Modesto Library. The craft fair will be held outside on the Modesto Library portico, located at 1500 I St. Free parking is available in the parking lot behind the library and on surrounding streets. For more information about the All-Kids Craft Fair please contact the library’s Children’s and Teen Services Department at 209-558-7810.

Information about regularly occurring programs can be found at www.stanislauslibrary.org, under the “Events and Classes” tab.
