Butterfly Programs at the Empire Library

Children and their families are invited to visit the Empire Library this April to watch the lifecycle of the butterfly, from its caterpillar stage, to the cocoon stage. A special "Butterfly Release" program and children's craft on Thursday, April 16. At 3:30 p.m. children will craft a butterfly out of snack sized plastic bags, clothes pins and pipe cleaners. At 4:30 p.m. the butterflies will be released from their temporary home inside the library.

These events are sponsored by the Friends of the Empire Library. The Empire Library is located at 18 South Abbie in Empire. For more information, please contact the Empire Library at (209) 524-5505.
