FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

January Events at the Hughson Library

Children and their families are invited to participate in a number of free seasonal programs this January, beginning with two special winter-themed Story Time programs. Following a winter hat themed Story Time on Thursday, Jan. 12 at 11:30 a.m. children can make wearable paper plate hats. On Thursday, Jan. 19 children can participate in a sheep-themed Story Time at 11:30 a.m. Following Story Time, children can make sheep out of his or her handprint and cotton balls.

“STEAM* Saturday: Winter Fest” will take place on Jan. 21 from 12 to 2 p.m. Children will learn how to make ice with their fingers, and will then learn how to make the ice grow. Participants can also take part in a LEGO® excavation, create watercolor ice designs, and make snow cones.

Children can paint winter scenes using watercolor paint and salt on Tuesday, Jan. 24 at 3 p.m. Painting helps promote creativity, hand-eye coordination, and fine motor skills.

The library will host a penguin party for children and their families on Tuesday, Jan. 31 at 3:30 p.m. The party will feature waddle races, a “pin the bow tie on the penguin” game, and penguin-themed crafts.

The Hughson Library is located at 2412 A Third St. For more information, please contact the Hughson Library branch supervisor, Heather Bailey, at (209) 883-2293.
