FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

November Events at the Hughson Library

The Hughson Library will host free crafts and activities this November, beginning with "Tom the Turkey Needs His Feathers," a month-long program for all ages. Throughout the month, participants can decorate a feather to put on the library's turkey display.

Scarecrow Saturday will take place on Nov. 12 from 12 to 3 p.m. Participants can enjoy dancing and games. Crafters can also use this time to assemble paper scarecrows to take home.

The library will host a LEGO day on Tuesday, Nov. 15 from 3 to 5 p.m. Finished LEGO creations will be displayed in the library. Children under the age of 4 must have direct parental supervision.

Children can take part in a forest pinecone craft on Wednesday, Nov. 16 at 3:30 p.m. Participants can make bears, squirrels, and other forest animals out of pinecones.

A fall craft will be held on Saturday, Nov. 19 from 12 to 3 p.m. Children can make paper bag trees, fall tree luminaries, and more. This craft is sponsored by the Friends of the Hughson Library.

On Wednesday, Nov. 23 the library will host two Thanksgiving themed programs. From 12 to 6 p.m. the library will offer a Thanksgiving Coloring Day for children. Participants can pick up Thanksgiving coloring pages to color. Completed coloring pages may be displayed at the library or taken home. At 3:30 p.m. the library will host Turkey Day, during which children can make turkey Oreos, turkey wreaths, and turkey hats. Turkey Day is sponsored by the Friends of the Hughson Library.

The Hughson Library is located at 2412 A Third St. For more information, please contact the Hughson Library branch supervisor, Heather Bailey, at (209) 883-2293.
