FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

July Events at the Keyes Library

This July the Keyes Library will host free crafts for all ages, in addition to a magic show for children and their families.

The library will host three craft programs for children in July, beginning with a rainbow fish craft on Thursday, July 6 from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Crafters can make their own rainbow fish stick puppets. On Thursday, July 20 from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. children can make toy airplanes using popsicle sticks and clothespins. Children can make their own personalized monsters with googly eyes on Thursday, July 27 from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Families can enjoy a free performance by Magician Brian Scott on Wednesday, July 12 at 12 p.m. This interactive program combines magic, comedy and fun with a love of reading.

Adults and teens are invited to take part in a key chain craft on Thursday, July 13 from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Crafters can create their own box knot (boondoggle) key chains out of paracord.

The Keyes Library is located at 4420 Maud Ave. in Keyes. For more information about programs at the Keyes Library, please call the Keyes Library branch supervisor, Yvonne Reagers, at (209) 664-8006.
