September Events at the Newman Library

The Newman Library will offer free crafts and activities this month, including a bracelet and keychain craft for teens taking place throughout the month of September. Teens can drop visit the library throughout the month to make a bracelet or keychain using a variety of colorful strings and ultraviolet reactive beads.

Children are invited to enjoy LEGO play at the library on Thursday, Sept. 10 at 3:30 p.m. LEGO play helps children improve fine motor skills while learning to think creatively. Children under the age of 4 are welcome to participate, however they must have direct parental supervision.

The library will host a craft for children on Saturday, Sept. 19 at 1:30 p.m. Participants will make bookmarks using provided craft materials. This craft is sponsored by the Friends of the Newman Library.

To take advantage of this month's programming, please visit the Newman Library. The Newman Library is located at 1305 Kern St. in Newman. For more information, please call (209) 862-2010.
