Día de los niños/Día de los libros celebration at Riverbank Library April 13

Fun, free family event highlights literacy

Children and adults are invited to Stanislaus County Library's Día de los Niños/Día de los Libros (Day of the Child/ Day of the Book) celebration on Saturday, April 13, 1 p.m. at the Riverbank Library. "Once Upon a Día" is the theme of this year's celebration, which highlights the importance of early literacy for children.

This fun and educational event is fun for the entire family. Children and families will be treated to a special bilingual StoryTime, crafts, folkloric dancers, light refreshments and a children's book giveaway (while supplies last).

Día de los niños/ Día de los libros is a national celebration, held annually in the spring, that brings families together and emphasizes the importance of literacy for every child, regardless of linguistic and cultural background.

This free event is supported by the Friends of the Riverbank Library. The Riverbank Library is located at 3442 Santa Fe St. and free parking is available on the street. For more information, please contact Victoria Holt at the Riverbank Library at 209-869-7008. Information about regularly occurring library programs can be found at www.stanislauslibrary.org, under the "Events and Classes" tab.
