Nick W. Blom Salida Regional Library offers family fun

Family Movie Night, Game Day, a children's Science program, and Tween Book-to-Movie Club offer something for everyone

Tuesdays are family days at the Nick W. Blom Salida Regional Library. The following Tuesday programs, plus a Family Game Day Saturday equals a fun time at the library.

Family Dinner and Movie Night is Tuesday, Feb. 19 at 6 p.m. Families are invited to bring a picnic dinner and enjoy the animated film "Trolls." Popcorn and a beverage will be provided. Children may attend in pajamas.

Family Game Day will be held Saturday, Feb. 23 at 3 p.m. Family members can challenge each other to board game competitions, video game tournaments and more. The Nintendo Switch will be available for use, along with the Oculus Rift Virtual Reality headset. Oculus Rift is limited to ages 13 and older.

It's full STEAM* ahead, with the Little Hands Science program, scheduled for Tuesday, Feb. 26 at 4 p.m. This program, designed for children ages 4 to 7, features a different science topic each month. This month children will learn about the heart. Advance registration is required. Call 209-543-7353 to sign up. *Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Math

The Tween Book-to-Movie Club will meet Thursday, Feb. 28 at 4 p.m. to discuss "How to Train Your Dragon," by Cressida Cowell. Designed for ages 8 to 12, participants are invited to read the book, watch the movie, and discuss. Activities and games related to this month's title are included in this fun gathering. Contact the library at 209-543-7353 to reserve a copy of the book.

"We want to give our community a place where they can spend time together as a family," said Jessica Geiss, children's librarian at the Salida Library. "Whether you're watching a movie, doing a science experiment or gaming, you can have quality family time at the library."

These programs are sponsored by the Friends of the Salida Library. The Salida Library is located at 4835 Sisk Road. For more information, please call the library supervisor, Wayne Philbrook, at 209-543-7353. Information on regularly occurring library programs can be found at www.stanislauslibrary.org, under the "Events and Classes" tab.
