All ages invited to star in the Reader's Theater at the Turlock Library

Community members will have an opportunity to shine in the library's low pressure, month-long acting troupe

Inspired by the library's Summer Reading Challenge theme, "It's Showtime at Your Library," the Turlock Library will host a weekly Reader's Theater workshop on Wednesdays at 4 p.m. this July.

Members of the Reader's Theater troupe will read a play, story, or poem from a prepared script. Participants will not be required to memorize any lines, nor will they wear costumes. Instead, the workshop will focus on helping all ages learn to use their voices to bring the stories to life.

"Reader's Theater is a tremendously fun and easy way to share a good story," said Diane Bartlett, Turlock Library supervisor. "There is a part waiting for you, no matter your age or reading ability, so I hope you can join us!"

The troupe will put on a show for family and friends during the workshop's final meeting on Wednesday, July 31. The Reader's Theater workshop is sponsored by the Friends of the Turlock Library.

The Turlock Library is located at 550 Minaret Ave. For more information, please contact Diane Bartlett at 209-664-8100. Information on regularly occurring programs can be found at www.stanislauslibrary.org under the "Events and Classes" tab.
