Stanislaus County Library's popular Youth Craft Fair returns October 8

Young crafters from throughout the county will showcase their handcrafted items

After a two-year hiatus, the library's Youth Craft Fair returns Saturday, Oct. 8 on the portico of the Modesto Library, from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. The fair features crafters ages 10 to 17, who will be on site to sell their handmade crafts. Shoppers are invited to come support the young crafters as they learn about advertising, customer service, handling money, and other aspects of running a small business.

Most items are priced at $10.00 or less. "We have more than 100 creative young crafters making final preparations now," said Christin Hutsell, children's librarian at the Modesto Library. "We are so excited to host them and showcase their work." The Youth Craft Fair is sponsored by the Friends of the Modesto Library. The craft fair will be held outside on the Modesto Library portico, located at 1500 I St.

Free parking is available in the parking lot behind the library and on surrounding streets. For more information about the Youth Craft Fair please contact the library's Children's and Teen Services Department at 209-558-7810. Information about regularly occurring programs can be found at www.stanislauslibrary.org, under the "Events and Classes" tab.
